Description/Analysis

Issue Detail: The 2019 League of California Cities (League) Annual Conference is scheduled from October 16 through 18, 2019 in Long Beach, California. During the conference, League membership will consider and act on resolutions that establish League policy. Each City Council must designate a voting delegate and may, if they wish, designate up to two alternate voting delegates. The recommendation is to designate City Manager Howard Chan as the voting delegate as allowable by the League of California Cities bylaws. There will be no alternate voting delegate.

Policy Considerations: This action will comply with the League of California Cities requirement that voting delegates be selected by City Council action.

Economic Impacts: None.

Environmental Considerations: None.

Sustainability: Not applicable.

Commission/Committee Action: Not applicable.

Rationale for Recommendation: Each City Council must designate a voting delegate in order to vote at the business meeting at the 2019 League of California Cities Annual Conference.

Financial Considerations: None.

Local Business Enterprise (LBE): Not applicable.
